

Team building : CLUE

Clue: Live! Clue, the classic board game, takes on a whole new dimension in this hilarious and intriguing Scaventure scavenger hunt adaptation. The mysterious Mr. X has been murdered! You have a pretty good idea when – after all, the body is still warm.

But as a team of top detectives, your group still has to piece together the rest of the puzzle. Who? Where? How? Get ready for a rollicking adventure as teams cover ten city blocks in search of all-important clues. You'll uncover them in unlikely places like newspapers, answering machines, footprints and more. All the while, six costumed CharActors armed with even more clues are roaming the hunt area.

Only by combining and comparing their cryptic statements will anyone be able to solve the crime. Teams have to work together to succeed, but also have to cooperate with competing teams to identify the murder weapon. The first team to complete this final phase wins, basking in the glory that comes with solving a tough case.
