

Team building : GEOCATCHING

GPS Powered Teambonding

Presenting a uniquely high-tech team building event and scavenger hunt that makes an extremely effective team building activity. Our teambonding GPS Scaventure is an innovative adventure based on the hot new sport of geocaching. It's a Scaventure gone high tech!

Using handheld GPS (Global Positioning System) units, your teams crack codes, solve riddles and complete mini missions. Success requires a blend of participants' innate abilities and individual skills along with the high tech capabilities of GPS, cell phones, digital cameras, maps, and hidden clues. Customized to support and accomplish your specific goals, your GPS Scaventure will challenge creativity, intelligence and communication skills, reinforcing essential teamwork skills every step of the way.

To give you a sense of how far we'll go, it can be run on 4x4 cars, on cycling, walking, by the night, in the all quartier city... there's no limit.
